

TULLETT PREBON PLC APPOINTS MARK LOMAX AS DIRECTOR OF SCANDINAVIAN RATES

23 November 2007

Tullett Prebon plc, the inter-dealer broker, is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Lomax as Director of Scandinavian Rates. Reporting to Angus Wink, Mark will take responsibility for Scandinavian Interest Rate Swaps and Scandinavian Government Bonds.

Mark has been with Tullett Prebon for 16 years and over the last 11 years has been responsible for building the Scandinavian desk. During this time Tullett Prebon has regularly achieved the No.1 Nordic Broker and Scandinavian Interest Rate Broker awards from Risk Magazine.

Tullett Prebon's Rates division covers Interest Rate Swaps, Asset Packages, Government Bonds, Government Bond Repurchase Agreement, Corporate Repurchase Agreement, Covered Bonds, Forward Rate Agreements and Overnight Index Swaps.

Angus Wink, Managing Director of Rates at Tullett Prebon, said: 'Mark has been instrumental in developing the Tullett Prebon Scandinavian Rates offering. I am delighted that in his new role he will be able to further leverage the team's success as we continue to develop the depth and diversity of our products and services in this key division.'
