Tullett Prebon moves to new Sydney office

Sydney, April 2018: Tullett Prebon Australia, part of TP ICAP, the world's largest interdealer broker, today completed its move into new offices at 9 Castlereagh Street in Sydney.

A total of 37 brokers and corporate support staff have moved from their previous office at 60 Margaret Street to the 29th floor of 9 Castlereagh Street, where they'll be housed under the same roof as their colleagues at ICAP, who are located on the 27th floor.

TP ICAP remains committed to operating Tullett Prebon and ICAP as separate and competing brands, although corporate functions will support both companies.

Barry Dennahey, CEO, TP ICAP, APAC said: "This is an important landmark for TP ICAP in Australia and a key milestone in our wider APAC integration programme. Moving to this modern working environment will enable us to realise corporate support function synergies, while continuing to provide the best service to our clients in offering two separate and competing brands."
